“ I remember in High School Brent and his buddies made this dune buggy with a V8 engine. They drove it out of the Shop class door around to front school . The Principal. Red Hopkins was not happy lol Brent and Ernie and Augie were good friends.

“ Brent and Augie were camper friends at Wekiva in Florida. Had great memories of dances, dinners and car races with them. He is now with the love of his life.

“ Brent and his brothers were like big brothers I never had, since their mother took care of my brother and I, daily, on weekdays for years in the wonderland (to me) country road neighborhood we lived in. Sitting at the breakfast table, him grabbing his lunchbox, revving up his harley and riding off to work, then sometimes seeing him return later, are now fond memories. I will always cherish my memories with him, his family, his wife, their combined families, they were and are my family too. I send love and pray the Lord will comfort each remaining one.
